

Role Model in the Making?

Simon Johnson, editor of Puffta.co.uk is this month's Positive Nation cover lad (he's too old to be a cover boy).

The UK's longest running gay teen website has teamed up with UKC to reach young gay men still playing Russian roulette with Aids. David G Taylor reports in this special double issue of Positive Nation.

Puffta burst onto the scene to great applause in 1999

"I don't usually take a lot of interest in so-called 'gay community' magazines, I can honestly say that I am pleasantly surprised with Puffta!"
Will X, London

"Its what every gay boy ever wanted!"
Tom Dubber, London

"Fantastic website, congratulations"
Russell T. Davies, Manchester (writer of Queer as Folk)

"Puffta is a role model to all gay teens."
Richard Clark, Liverpool

Note's to editors.

Puffta.co.uk: Puffta is a national web site aimed at gay teens. We're 6 years old this year! Oozing with style, puffta.co.uk packs in loads of gay teen features. The boys at puffta say it's like the girlie magazine SUGAR or 19, only its online and for gay boys". Puffta is gay teen owned, run by a dedicated team of gay boys, and is exclusively for gay teens.

PositiveAdam.co.uk: PositiveAdam.co.uk is an online diary of Adam Bruce, a gay teen who's HIV Positive. Covering everything from his seroconversion, his "counts" and daily diary charting his health and learning's about HIV & AIDS. PositiveAdam launched in March 2005.

Positive Nation: Positive Nation is the UK's HIV and sexual health magazine. It is published by the UKC - the UK Coalition of People Living with HIV and AIDS. Click on the UKC logo to find out more about our activities. The print edition of the magazine is FREE to anyone living with HIV/AIDS in the UK and can be found in most gay venues.
